C.U. English Honours Questions Jan 29 2023 This unique anthology of assorted topics on a vast number of literary texts is a signatory book for teachers and students of any level of academic study -- from school to University. Ranging from the Old English to the postmodern period, the anthology provides an extremely useful collection of topics which can be used to set examination questions, making essay outlines, writing critical observations, drafting research and academic papers and for creating lesson plans. The anthology takes the currently renovated English Honours syllabus of the University of Calcutta which is considered as one of the world's very best literary selections. Additionally questions of previous years are arranged text-by-text, so that students can understand how the focal point of one topic changes from question to question. Furthermore similar topics are segregated and arranged together to enhance the students' ability to augment their critical potential to approach any literary text with a lot more mastery and confidence as well. In short, this handbook is an invaluable and unified companion for all students studying English Literature at any level all over the world. Updated every year, this latest edition is an indispensable and unique addition to any academic library.

The Dublin Notebook Mar 07 2021 Hopkins's 'Dublin Notebook' provides intimate and rare access to the Jesuit poet's private, poetic, religious, and academic thoughts and words during his final years in Dublin. In February 1884, Hopkins moved to Dublin from England to become a Professor of Classics at University College (entrusted to the Jesuits in 1883) and a Fellow at the recently-established Royal University of Ireland, an examining institution. He lived at UC's St. Stephen's Green campus until 8 June 1889, when he died of typhoid. The 'Dublin Notebook' is a unique repository of personal memoranda, drafts of poems, lecture outlines, spiritual meditation notes, and academic notes, and sheds new light on the circumstances that produced Hopkins's 'Sonnets of Desolation' in the mid-1880s. The contents include pages in which he tallied examination marks and commented on students' performances; intermittent musical jottings; lists of correspondents to whom he owed letters; attendance records; drafts of a short biography for publication; a commentary on Cicero; and preliminary versions of 'Sibyl's Leaves', one of his most exceptional poems. This edition, Volume VII in the Collected Works of Gerard Manley Hopkins, provides readers with a digitized facsimile of the manuscript, a detailed transcription of each page, and scholarly resources such as a historical and cultural introduction to Hopkins's Dublin years; an analysis of the notebook's contents; the editors' explanation of the manuscript and its challenges; translations of and citations for all classical quotations; and thorough annotations (including transcriptions of his musical compositions). Other resources include a Biographical Register; documents related to Hopkins's academic appointments; sample examinations that he set for the Royal University; and edited versions of his study of Cicero's 'On Duty' and his biographical notice of Richard Watson Dixon, the Pre-Raphaelite poet. The 'Dublin Notebook' sheds new light on Hopkins's life and inner torments, his wide-ranging artistic talents (and musical aspirations), his involvement in Ireland's vexed 'troubles' in the late nineteenth century, his harrowing spiritual and emotional condition, and the busy life of a burdened Classics professor.
